THE SCHOOL OF LAW

---

HISTORICAL STATEMENT

Loyola Night Law School was established in October, 1914. During the first year of its existence the classes were held in the Alumni Hall of the College of the Immaculate Conception, Common and Baronne Streets. An increase in the student-body made the removal of the school necessary, and it was decided to use the spacious halls of the University.

The University is located on St. Charles Avenue, opposite Audubon Park. The Law School is housed in Marquette Hall, the main building, thus affording ample space for all the purposes of this department. Several car lines put it in easy reach of all parts of the city.

STUDIES

The Course of Study embraces the entire field of law, but has been mapped out with the special end in view of qualifying the student for practice before the State Courts of Louisiana, and the Federal Courts. It provides, however, a special course in Common Law, and is sufficiently broad in its scope to cover, generally, the law of the other States, as is proved by the fact that those of our students who have taken the bar examinations in Common Law States have passed successfully. Evening classes were decided upon, partly as offering opportunities to many ambitious and worthy students whose occupations would deprive them of an opportunity to acquire a profession, and partly in order that students might be able to combine the practical with the theoretical side of the law by entering the offices of practicing attorneys and benefiting by the experience thus gained. There is also a Day Course to accommodate those not wishing to pursue the Night Course. The student is required to read the daily assignment in each course before the class session. The professor then lectures on the text assigned, comments on the leading cases, points out difficulties, and explains them. Later, quizzes are held covering the same matter, in which the student is questioned and made to apply the principles studied. In this way he is given every opportunity to attain a fair mastery of each particular branch.

The curriculum of studies covers a period of three years in the Day Course, and four years in the Night Course, at the end of which the degree of Bachelor of Laws is conferred on those who have passed successfully the required examinations in the entire course.

EXAMINATIONS

The scholastic year is divided into two semesters, and examinations are given at the end of each.

The grades "A," "B," "C," "D," "E" and "F," and no others, will be given. The lowest passing grade is "D." A mark of "F" cannot be made up by examination, and the subject must be taken over in class.

The numerical or percentage values and qualities of work indicated by these letters are approximately as follows:

| Grade  | Quality of Work | Percentages |
|--------|-----------------|-------------|
| A..... | Excellent ..... | 93-100      |
| B..... | Good .....      | 85-92       |
| C..... | Fair .....      | 77-84       |
| D..... | Bare Pass ..... | 66-76       |
| E..... | Condition ..... | 50-65       |
| F..... | Failure .....   | Below 50    |

Quality credits are earned according to the following schedule:

| Grade   | Quality Creditsper Credit Hour |
|---------|------------------------------------|
| A ..... | 3                                  |
| B ..... | 2                                  |
| C ..... | 1                                  |
| D ..... | 0                                  |
| E ..... | 0                                  |
| F ..... | 0                                  |

This quality credit requirement is in addition to the credit hour requirement, and no student will be granted a degree until he has fulfilled both the credit hour and the quality credit requirements. For graduation quality credits must equal hour credits.

SPECIAL REGULATIONS

Every student must attain passing grades in at least one-half of the work on which he is examined in any semester. He must also obtain quality credits in at least one-third of such work. Any student who fails to meet both of these requirements shall be excluded from the Law School during the next regular semester.

No student will be allowed to take more than fifteen hours of law work or work in another department of the University in any semester without special permission from the Dean of the Law School.

A student whose work is unsatisfactory during any session may be denied permission to carry a full schedule during the following semester.

SESSIONS

The regular sessions begin the second week of September of each year, and extend to the end of the following May for Day students, thus covering more than thirty-two full weeks; they extend to the third week of the following June for the Night students, thus covering forty full weeks. The above computation of class weeks is exclusive of examinations and holidays. The regular examinations for Day students will commence in the third week of May, and the Night students in the second week of June.

Classes are held on all Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, in the Night Course, from 7 to 9 P. M., and therefore include ten full lecture hours per week, which are at times extended. In the Day Course, lectures are given on the same days, but from 8 A. M. to 11 A. M., including at least fifteen hours per week.

REQUIREMENTS

Applicants will be admitted to the Professional Course who have completed their eighteenth year at the time of registration, have graduated from a recognized high school, and have had two years of college, viz.:

Subject—

|                        | EntranceUnits |
|------------------------|-------------------|
| English .....          | 3                 |
| Algebra .....          | 1                 |
| Plane Geometry .....   | 1                 |
| Foreign Language ..... | 2                 |
| History .....          | 2                 |
| Electives .....        | 6                 |

PRE-LAW COURSE

In accordance with the standards of the Association of American Law Schools and the American Bar Association, students entering upon Law must have completed "one-half of the work acceptable for a Bachelor's degree granted on the basis of a four-year period of study by the State University or the principal colleges or universities in the State where the Law School is located." (Handbook of the Association of American Law Schools, 1928. Article 6, ¶2.)

The details of this entrance requirement as laid down by the professional school which a student plans on entering must determine his schedule of preliminary work.

The particular program approved by the Law Department of Loyola University is the following:

First Year

Subject—

|                        | Sem. Hrs. |
|------------------------|-----------|
| English .....          | 8         |

| Public Speaking .....  | 2         |

*Latin or Modern Language must be taken.

Suspension, dismissal, or other penalty for negligence, moral or intellectual unfitness, or for whatsoever cause, is always at the discretion of the Dean or Regent of the Law School.

Students who have completed the full three years in the Day Course, or the four years in the Night Course, and passed satisfactorily the required examinations, will be entitled to the degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL. B.) on the regular commencement day of the University, provided they have then completed their twenty-first year or shall complete the same on or before the first Monday in October next thereafter.

COMBINED COURSES

ARTS-LAW

In accordance with the standards of the Association of American Law Schools and the American Bar Association, students entering upon Law will be required to present credit for two years' work in a College of Arts. Those contemplating the study of Law are exhorted to arrange their college work in such a manner that they may complete three years of work in the College of Arts, and be eligible for an A. B. or Ph. D. degree when they have completed the required 32 semester hours in the first two years of the Law School.

TUITION AND FEES

|   |         |
|---|---------|
| Matriculation fee (payable once).....     | $ 5.00 |
| Registration fee (payable each year)..... | 5.00    |
| Tuition ($70.00 semi-annually).....      | 140.00  |
| Library fee .....                         | 5.00    |
| Athletic fee .....                        | 10.00   |
| Student Publication fee.....              | 10.00   |
| Graduation fee .....                      | 25.00   |
| Cap and gown rental.....                  | 2.00    |

The Athletic and Student Publication fees confer on Law students the privileges of college games and events, and of college publications of legal and general interest.

The tuition fee is payable semi-annually in advance, viz.: on the date of registration, and on the second day of January. Conditioned students must pay $5.00 before re-examination in any subject. Any student failing to register during the fixed registration days, or failing to pay tuition at the appointed time, will be taxed an extra fee of three dollars for the first week and five for each succeeding week. All other payments, except graduation fee, must be made on or before registration. Students in arrears will not be permitted to take the examinations.

REGISTRATION

Students intending to enter the School must register between the dates fixed. A certificate of character and conduct, attested by at least two reputable persons, will be required of all applicants.

All High School units and College credits must be submitted prior to registration.

LIBRARY

The Miller Law Library, comprising the latest editions of standard text and source books, several sets of the U. S. Supreme Court and of the Louisiana Reports, the complete Acts of Louisiana, the Federal Reports, the leading State Reports, complete National Reporter System, the commentaries of the prominent Common Law jurists, and the completest collection in the United States in some four thousand volumes of Civil Code literature, English Law Reports, English Reprint and British Ruling Cases, presents to the Loyola Law students and lecturers an inexhaustible and always satisfying source of study and research. The Library was founded by the initial donation of the entire collection of Judge Branch K. Miller of some four thousand volumes, and was soon supplemented by the Common Law collection of Hon. Lamar Stephens, the noted Georgia jurist, and by valuable donations of C. W. and W. C. Staub of New Orleans. The value of the Law Library has since been notably enhanced by the donations of the law libraries of the late Chief Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, Edward Douglas White, of the late Justice Charles Parlange and of Justice John St. Paul of Louisiana, and of the Hon. Francis and Jerome Mullin, late of the New York Bar. These collections embrace many precious volumes of special worth to Civil and Common Law students and raise the library content to over fifteen thousand volumes.

The Faculty gratefully acknowledges further donations from the following: Hon. J. Zach Spearing, Hon. James O'Connor, Mr. M. C. Soniat, Mr. John McCloskey, Mrs. C. Dufour, Mr. H. H. Brooks, Mrs. B. Ory, Mrs. Geo. Lapeyre, Governor Huey P. Long, Dean Rufus Harris, Mr. Alex C. Granzin, the Miltenberger family, Mr. J. M. Lapeyre, and Miss Eleonora Del Bondio for additional steel bookcases.

The fund created by the library and re-examination fees and by donations is invested in new additions to the Law Library, thus keeping it continuously abreast of legal progress.

THE LOYOLA LAW JOURNAL

The Loyola Law Journal is a law review published and edited by the students of the Law School. It is issued quarterly and consists of leading articles on legal topics, editorials, book reviews and comment on current decisions. The students are assisted in its production by the Faculty, who aim to give the Journal a text-book value, and have so prescribed and made obligatory its use.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Many bright and ambitious men and women, of approved moral character, are debarred from the opportunity of entering upon the study of Law because of lack of funds.

The University, on the one hand, is most anxious to assist each deserving student, but, on the other, it depends on the income from tuition fees to support the various departments. The University, therefore, must look to generous benefactors who, in their charity, wish to help native sons and daughters in this way by supplying funds necessary to care for a student's tuition.

A Perpetual Scholarship is founded when an endowment of $3,000.00 is set aside for that purpose.

Scholarships cover the tuition fee only. The holder of the scholarship must pay the special fees at the beginning of the year, and must at all times set an example of good conduct and serious application. The honor will be forfeited by any holder of a scholarship whose grades or conduct during a semester are unsatisfactory.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

SODALITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

The purpose of the Sodality is to develop Christian character under the protection of the Mother of Christ, and to train young hearts and minds to works of mercy and charity. No student can be admitted to the Sodality unless he has proven himself to be of exemplary moral character, full of the Christian spirit, and an earnest student.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

Officers of the various classes and departments, elected by the students, form a Council for the fostering of true college spirit and the promoting of student activities, whether athletic, social, scholastic or religious. Only such students are eligible to the position of class officers or members of the Student Council whose manly, moral character and standard of scholarship make them distinguished among their fellow-students. The election to be valid must be ratified by the Faculty.

DEBATING CLUB

Students of the School of Law must participate weekly in exercises of public speaking. To further this activity among the students and to develop special oratorical talent, the Loyola University Debating Club has been formed and conducts debates with colleges and universities in various sections of the country.

THESPIAN AND LITERARY SOCIETY

The purpose of the Thespians is to develop and give an outlet to the dramatic talent of the students. With this object in view, several plays are given during the year. Members are encouraged to write plays of varying length and scope. These, if they show sufficient merit, are produced by the Club at one or another of its appearances.

GLEE CLUB

Students of the School of Law are eligible for membership in the Loyola Glee Club. The Glee Club takes an active part in the public entertainments and assemblies of the University and has a schedule of concerts which it gives each year, both for public receptions and for radio programs over the Loyola Broadcasting Station, WWL.

UNIVERSITY BAND

Membership in the University Band is open to the students of the School of Law if they have the required ability and training. All who become members are expected to be regular and prompt in attendance at the appointed rehearsals. Opportunities for public performances are offered during the course of the year.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

The students of the University, under Faculty supervision, issue three publications: The Loyola Law Journal, a quarterly; The Maroon, a bi-weekly; and The Wolf, a year book. A Faculty Director is appointed directly by the President of the University, and he in turn appoints his editorial staff. The business management is in the hands of the students. Thus, their various duties in the editorial, reportorial, advertising and subscription departments render them familiar with phases of life outside of college that will be of benefit to them in their future careers.
